

The following are ten “Personal Financial Informational Documents” (number of pages in length in parentheses) are offered by ONAC.

1. Budgeting Basics: Controlling Your Finances – Everyone Starts Somewhere (3)
2. Finding Free or Low-Cost Business Coaching for Native Entrepreneurs (1)
3. Selected Credit-Building Options (3)
4. The Financial Significance of Credit Scoring (3)
5. How do Hard and Soft Credit Report Inquiries Affect Credit Scores (2)
6. Advice on Closing Active Credit Accounts – From TransUnion Credit Bureau (2)
7. Medical Debt Relief – Ask Dr. Per Cap (2)
8. Changing or Updating Personal Information on a Credit Report (3)
9. Tips for disputing-removing errors and requesting removal of older paid delinquencies, collections, and-or judgments from credit reports (1)
10. Selected Home Loan Eligibility Requirements (1)

Also included in this section are three homebuyer guides:

- Family Finances (Guide One)
- The Homebuying Process (Guide Two)
- Understanding Delinquency, Default, and Foreclosure and Building Awareness of Prevention Tactics (Guide Three)